The Guadalupe County Child Welfare Board (GCCWB) is made up of a group of volunteers who are appointed by the County Commissioners' Court to work with Child Protective Services Caseworkers. This board consists of community volunteers, other organizations, and individuals to help meet the needs of abused & neglected children in Guadalupe County.

In Fiscal Year 2021-2022, the Rainbow Room located at the Child Protective Service (CPS) office in Seguin assisted 87 families living in Guadalupe County including a total of 116 children. The board spent a total of $39,442.89 to assist CPS and the families they serve during this period. For more about what we do, please visit our website at www.gccwb.org.

Due to COVID-19, we had to suspend several of our fundraisers. This year on December 9th the board will hold our 3rd Annual Ugly Sweater Dinner Party at the Stephen and Mary Birch Texas Theatre in Seguin. The Dinner Event will begin with Silent Auction, Adult Beverages (Beer, Wine & Margaritas) and a Catered Meal (Mexican Food), Live Entertainment, and an Ugly Sweater Contest.
