The Guadalupe County Child Welfare Board (GCCWB) is made up of a group of volunteers who are appointed by the County Commissioners' Court to work with Child Protective Services Caseworkers. This board consists of community volunteers, other organizations, and individuals to help meet the needs of abused & neglected children in Guadalupe County.

In Fiscal Year 2021-2022, the Rainbow Room located at the Child Protective Service (CPS) office in Seguin assisted 87 families living in Guadalupe County including a total of 116 children. The board spent a total of $39,422.89 to assist CPS and the families they serve during this period. For more about the Guadalupe County Child Welfare Board, visit our website at www.gccwb.org.

This year on May 13th the board will hold our third annual raffle run at the SS American Memorial Park located at Lazy U Ranch at 450 Naumann Rd, in Seguin. The run will begin with registration, visiting vendor booths, viewing raffle items, and checking out all the Jeeps and motorcycles. The participants will then depart in/on their vehicles/motorcycles to make as many of the stops listed on a provided map to obtain raffle tickets to be entered into buckets for raffle items they choose. After the run, the event will continue back at the location with a meal, music, and raffle drawings.
